Security Council

4855th meeting

Security Council mission

Report of the Security Council mission to Afghanistan from 31 October to 7 November 2003

The agenda was adopted without objection.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Afghanistan, at his request, to participate in the discussion of the item without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

In accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to Ambassador Gunter Pleuger, Head of the Security Council mission to Afghanistan.

The Council began its consideration of the item and heard a briefing by Ambassador Pleuger.

4856th meeting

The situation in Somalia

Report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Somalia (S/2003/987)

The agenda was adopted without objection.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Somalia, at his request, to participate in the discussion of the item without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and the provisional rules of procedure of the Council.

The President made a statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/2003/19).

General Assembly

Fifty-eighth session

60th plenary meeting

Appointments to fill vacancies in subsidiary organs and other appointment: appointments of members of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions: report of the Fifth Committee (A/58/561) . . . . . [17 (a)]

The General Assembly, as recommended by the Fifth Committee in paragraph 4 of its report (A/58/561), appointed Mr. Richard Moon (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) as a member of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions for a term of office beginning on 11 November 2003 and ending on 31 December 2004.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (a) of agenda item 17.

Elections to fill vacancies in principal organs: election of eighteen members of the Economic and Social Council . . . . . [15 (b)]

(i) Election of one member

The President drew attention to a letter addressed to him by the Permanent Representative of Portugal, by which Portugal announced that it would relinquish its seat on the Economic and Social Council for the reminder of its term, in favour of Turkey (A/58/317).

On the first round of balloting, having obtained the required two-thirds majority, Turkey was elected a member of the Economic and Social Council for a term of office beginning 1 January 2004 and ending on 31 December 2005.

(ii) Election of eighteen members

On the first round of balloting, having obtained the required two-thirds majority and the largest number of votes, Armenia, Bangladesh, Belgium, Belize, Canada, Colombia, Indonesia, Italy, Mauritius, Namibia, Nigeria, Panama, the Republic of Korea, Tunisia, the United Arab Emirates, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States of America were elected members of the Economic and Social Council for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2004.

Since one seat from among the Eastern European States remained to be filled, the General Assembly proceeded, in accordance to rule 94 of the rules of procedure, to a second round of balloting restricted to the 2 countries that had obtained the largest number of votes, namely, Belarus and Poland.

The results of the second round of balloting (first restricted ballot) were as follows:

	Votes
Belarus	75
Poland	108

On the second round of balloting, neither of the two countries obtained the required majority.

The Assembly decided, on a proposal by the President, to postpone to the afternoon the balloting for one seat from among the Eastern European States.

61st plenary meeting

Elections to fill vacancies in principal organs: election of eighteen members of the Economic and Social Council . . . . . [15 (b)]

(ii) Election of eighteen members

The General Assembly continued its consideration of sub-item (b) of agenda item 15.

Since one seat remained to be filled from among the Eastern European States, the Assembly proceeded, in accordance to rule 94 of the rules of procedure, to a third round of balloting (second restricted ballot).

The results of the third round of balloting (second restricted ballot) were as follows:

	Votes
Belarus	55
Poland	113

Since again one seat remained to be filled from among the Eastern European States, the Assembly proceeded, in accordance to rule 94 of the rules of procedure, to a fourth round of balloting (third restricted ballot).

The representative of Belarus made a statement.

On the fourth round of balloting (third restricted ballot), having obtained the required two-thirds majority, Poland was elected a member of the Economic and Social Council for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2004.

The following 18 States were thus elected members of the Economic and Social Council for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2004: Armenia, Bangladesh, Belgium, Belize, Canada, Colombia, Indonesia, Italy, Mauritius, Namibia, Nigeria, Panama, Poland, the Republic of Korea, Tunisia, the United Arab Emirates, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States of America.

The General Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (b) of agenda item 15.

Programme of work

The General Assembly was informed of the following changes to the programme of work of the plenary for Monday, 17 November 2003, at 10 a.m.:

The General Assembly would take up, as the first item, agenda item 16 (a) (Election of the forty-three members of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law); as the second item, agenda 16 (c) (Election of seven members of the Committee for programme and Coordination); and as the third item, agenda item 20 (Support by the United Nations system of the efforts of Governments to promote and consolidate new or restored democracies), to take action on draft resolution A/58/L.15.

United Nations Convention Against Corruption. New York, 31 October 2003

Opening for signature

The Convention will be open for signature from 9 to 11 December 2003 at the "Centro de Convenciones y Exposiciones Yucatán Siglo XXI" in Mérida, Mexico, and thereafter at United Nations Headquarters in New York until 9 December 2005 by all States and by regional economic integration organizations, provided that at least one Member State of such organization is a signatory to the Convention.

The Secretary-General takes this opportunity to recall that, under the established international practice, only Heads of State, Heads of Government or Ministers for Foreign Affairs are empowered, by virtue of their functions, to sign a treaty on behalf of a State without having to produce full powers to that effect. Other representatives wishing to sign a treaty must be in the possession of appropriate full powers, which expressly authorize signature of a specified treaty by a named representative issued and signed by one of these authorities. Full powers are distinct from credentials. Credentials alone are not adequate for the purpose of signing a treaty.

The Secretary-General would be obliged if States wishing to sign the Convention could, as necessary, provide copies of the required full powers by 4 December 2003 to the Treaty Section, Office of Legal Affairs, at United Nations Headquarters in New York (tel. 1 (212) 963-5047; fax 1 (212) 963-3693; e-mail treaty@un.org). Original instruments of full powers should be provided to the depositary representative at the signature ceremony.
